Company Poll

Feature

Quick decisions, everyone's voice.

Ask a question, see live results.

The Problem

When you need a quick answer from the whole team, an email gets lost in overflowing inboxes, and a full survey takes too long to set up.

Rounding everyone up for a show of hands isn't practical either, so simple decisions drag on and people feel left out.

What Changes

A quick answer from everyone, the same day

Every voice counts, not just the loudest

Decisions made with confidence, backed by live results

How it works

What you get	How Epic does it
Easy setup	Administrators create a question with multiple-choice answers in minutes
Anonymous or named	Choose how responses are recorded, depending on the question
Pops up on every home page	No emails or extra clicks – the poll is impossible to miss
Live results	Responses in real time, with pie charts and bar graphs
Close and report	Close the poll at any time and get a full report instantly
Public link option	Let people outside Epic take part – ideal for events or external teams
