

Live / Pulse Surveys

Feature

“Feedback is the breakfast of champions” – Ken Blanchard

Obtain instant feedback at meetings or conferences

Epic’s Live / Pulse Surveys bring instant feedback to life—perfect for energising meetings, conferences, and team sessions. Whether you’re sparking discussion, gathering insights, or just breaking the ice, this feature turns passive audiences into active contributors in seconds.

It’s fast, fun, and fully interactive—because great ideas don’t wait for a follow-up email.

Answers pop up live at the time of survey

A Word Cloud picture of the key words is also available

Key Functions

- Instant Setup, Instant Impact: Create surveys in minutes with multiple question types. Display a QR code on screen—participants scan it with their phones and jump straight in.
- Live Response Display: Answers appear on screen in real time as they’re typed, creating dynamic engagement. Prefer suspense? You can hide responses until the survey closes.
- Word Cloud Magic: Watch key words form a live Word Cloud—great for visualising themes, sentiment, or standout ideas.
- Anonymous & Inclusive: No logins, no pressure. Responses are anonymous, encouraging honest input from everyone in the room.
- Mobile-First Experience: Designed for mobile access, so participants can respond from anywhere—whether seated in a boardroom or tuning in remotely.
